

Sergey Kadenko was born in Kiev, Ukraine, in 1981. In 1998 he entered the Institute of Applied and System Analysis of the National Technical University of Ukraine “Kiev Polytechnic Institute”. He graduated from the Institute in 2004. In 2006 he started working in the Institute for Information Recording of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine under the supervision of professor Vitaly Totsenko (1936-2008), his former teacher, and a leading Ukrainian specialist in the area of decision-making support. In that same year Sergey entered postgraduate (Ph D) studies. He is the author of several articles and one of the co-authors of tender-winning Higher Educational Establishments’ Rating methodology, developed by the Institute’s Department of Analytical Methods of Information Technology, and submitted to the National Fundamental Research Foundation of Ukraine in 2007. Presently he is a Ph D student and a junior research assistant at the Institute for Information Recording in Kiev. The main scope of his current scientific activity is developing ordinal estimate-based decision support methods.