

Interesting architecture around the University of Pittsburgh

Below are a few of the interesting buildings around the campus or take the University virtual tour at <http://www.tour.pitt.edu/>.

Formerly a Masonic Temple currently the home of Katz's executive program

Neighborhood building

St. Paul's Cathedral
Pittsburgh's largest Catholic church

Frick Fine Arts Building next door to Katz. The ISAHP2009 opening session will be in this auditorium.

The Carnegie Complex:
museum, library, music hall.
Across the plaza from Katz

Heinz Chapel; Pitt's campus chapel open to all religious groups

Soldiers and Sailors Memorial

Petersen Events Center
Pitt's champion basketball team plays here

Hillman Library
1.9 million volumes

